

Statement of Inclusion

Suffering is a human condition which can be worsened because of biases or prejudices for or against any race, ethnic origin, nationality, religion, gender, sexual orientation, political party, or other belief or position which separates the One Buddha Mind into many.

We welcome all who come through our gates and are respectful of others.